Subject: Khalid ELHASSAN - [redacted]

[redacted] Per [redacted] request, this information is being provided for inclusion in an incident report from [redacted] to the ExDir. I've cc'd [redacted] as his [redacted] serves as the point of contact with Fairfax County Police, and the OGC attorney who is handling the lawsuit for the Agency. Please let me know if you need more information.

Khalid A. ELHASSAN, SSN [redacted] underwent normal prescreening as a CST candidate in Spring 2002 and was subsequently issued a conditional offer of employment (COE) after [redacted] the Assessment and Evaluation (A&E) process conducted by OMS. After he was issued the COE, he was seen again by OMS on 5/13 & 14/2002 as part of his routine security/medical applicant processing. [redacted]

[redacted] On 7/9/02 the RC notified Mr. ELHASSAN by letter that his processing was canceled because he did not satisfy all of the conditions for employment. During various parts of his applicant processing, Mr. ELHASSAN was exposed to the following Agency buildings - [redacted]

On 12/22/02 the Fairfax County Police responded to a disturbance involving a weapon at Mr. ELHASSAN's residence. After a short standoff, Mr. ELHASSAN surrendered and was arrested. At the time of his arrest several guns were seized. In interviews with the officers, he claimed that his roommates were CIA "operatives" [redacted] and that they were plotting against him. He told the Fairfax officers about his prior CIA application and made paranoid claims that the Agency was watching him and reading his email. [redacted]
