Dear Mr. Elhassan:

During your pre-employment processing, we determined that you do not satisfy all of the conditions for employment with the Central Intelligence Agency. Although we continue to be impressed with your professional qualifications, we must rescind our conditional offer of employment. There is no appeal of this decision.

As stated on the final paragraph of Enclosure B, which accompanied your conditional offer of employment, no statement of reasons for the rescission of our conditional offer of employment will be provided to you. You may request records pertaining to your application under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and the Privacy Act (PA). If you wish to file a FOIA/PA request, please write to the Information and Privacy Coordinator, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C. 20505. Please be advised that these statutes do not require the U.S. Government to provide a statement of reasons for the rescission of our conditional offer of employment to you.

Thank you for your interest in employment with the Agency. We wish you well in your future endeavors.

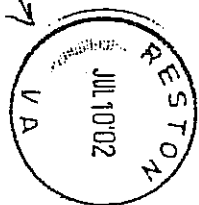

Sincerely,

Janet Everett
Staff Director
